Treasure In My Attic

I had been cleaning out ~~the~~ the attic at home all morning when I suddenly found an ancient box that looked like it was about to fall into pieces. When I opened the box and looked inside, I just couldn't believe my eyes. There was an old ring from my favourite computer game "Mad, I found something which can surprise you", called I for my brother. When he came and saw the ring, he suggested to put it on any of my fingers. Certainly, I agreed.

When I did it, I noticed words which tell that if I turned round the stone, my dreams would realise. I was very hungry, so I wished some food and it appeared in front of me. But it was only a beginning of our adventures.

After an unknown number of years has stopped to surprise us, so we considered to save the ring for next generations. We hid the ring in the dark forest surrounding our house under an oak which stayed there for a lot of centuries.
